

“Sex trafficking” is a form of sexual exploitation and is a crime under the Criminal Code of Canada. It can include recruiting, harbouring, transporting, obtaining or providing a person for the purpose of sex. It involves the use of force, physical or psychological coercion or deception. Most individuals who are trafficked for the purpose of sexual exploitation are women and girls, but all people may be targeted.

from community organizations and partners such as Dilico, and share necessary information in accordance with SGDSB policy 510, Suspected Child Abuse.

4.4

The principal can identify individuals such as school staff, a social worker, a member of the special education team, a member of the mental health team to support the